

FROM CRISIS TO STABILIZATION:
UPDATES ON CALIFORNIA'S HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE MARKET

STATEWIDE INSURANCE MARKET UPDATE

California's homeowners insurance market is showing early signs of stabilizing, and new analysis indicates a possible slowdown in FAIR Plan growth following the Sustainable Insurance Strategy (SIS).

Join Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara, Carolyn Kousky of Insurance for Good, and Amy Bach of United Policyholders for a discussion on:

- New FAIR Plan trends and what a slowdown means for consumers
- Early signs of market stabilization and insurer participation under SIS
- What's working and what's next to expand coverage options
- Key reforms to strengthen long-term market health
